- at least one year of experience in an international or regional law firm (incl. work as a paralegal/trainee)
- excellent knowledge of general corporate law, commercial law and basic financial regulatory framework
- excellent written and spoken English
- completed Czech law school (international study experience or economic background is welcomed)
- strong analytical ability, excellent drafting, research, writing and verbal communication skills and commitment to client service
- a high level of professional interest in law and dedication to continuous learning and improvement
- a team player with a proactive attitude and positive approach to work
- flexibility and commitment to work

We offer

- interesting and challenging work for renowned clients / high-profile deals
- work in a highly dedicated team of lawyers ranked in international law publications
- close collaboration with other practice groups on a domestic and cross-border basis
- a competitive remuneration package
- attractive training opportunities
- a collegial working atmosphere
- a modern office in the centre of Prague

Do you possess these qualifications? Are you interested in being part of a successful, growing and ambitious team?

Are you looking forward to challenging work with demanding international clients?

If so, we would love to hear from you.
