The World Jurist Association and the College of Business and Technical Sciences, Warsaw Management University are pleased to invite you to a conference bringing together expert practitioners to discuss the evolving impact of privatization, banking regulations and the United Nations Commission on International Trade Laws (UNCITRAL) on cross-border insolvency.

The Poland 2015 Conference will discuss various topics including:

Privatization
- Legal Framework for Privatization – including Property Rights, Law of Contracts, Transparency, and Reliable and Effective Institutions
- Capital Markets
- Independent and Impartial Judiciary
- Successful Privatization Efforts: Challenges and Opportunities including Building Local Capacity, Effective Academic Training and Support, Appropriate Monitoring and Control, and the Role of Labor

Banking
- World Bank, UNCITRAL and Other International Institutions’ Model Laws and Proposals
- Developments in International Banking Laws, including Electronic Banking Issues
- Major Challenges, including Combating Money Laundering and Antitrust Issues
- Major Issues, including Jurisdictional Issues and Universal and Territorial Approaches

Cross-Border Insolvency
- Major Issues, including Jurisdictional Issues and Universal and Territorial Approaches
- UNCITRAL’s Model Law and EU Regulations
- Insolvency Across Borders – A North American Perspective

Call for Speakers!
- The Program Committee of the Privatization, Banking & Cross-Border Insolvency Conference is now accepting proposals from qualified speakers. All proposals should include a brief abstract of the paper, and a short description of the 15-20 minute oral presentation that will be delivered at the Conference.
- Please submit your proposals and include a short professional bio/brief CV via e-mail to falexander@worldjurist.org.
